Studio Me Collection

Artists from Blue Room, the Bluecoat's supported studio, have launched a new collection of super limited edition screen prints and printed merchandise.

Building upon favourite themes including nature, football and music, six artists including Laura Aquilina, Rob Ellis, Andrew Mellor, William Richardson, Jean Smith and Veronica Watson have been developing their printmaking practice in the Bluecoat Print Studio as part of Studio Me, our inclusive artist development project.

With prices starting at just £10, move quickly to snap up a piece from our emerging artists with all proceeds shared between the artists and the Blue Room project. Your support enables the Bluecoat to continue our work supporting learning disabled and neurodivergent artists to flourish.

Shop Prints at the Bluecoat

Looking to brighten up your space or a gift for the art lover in your life? We have the perfect prints for you this festive season.

Limited Edition Prints

Deck the halls with our limited edition prints from Ukrainian artist Alevtina Kakhidze and Liverpool based artist Ellie Hoskins.

Alevtina Kakhidze's print edition is a three colour screenprint and Ellie Hoskins' work is a single colour print. Both A3 size and on white 250GSM archival paper.

Gift meaningful experiences this Christmas

If you are looking for a unique gift this year for your young artist, book on to this hands on workshop, taking place in January 2024.

Inspired by our current exhibition A New Kind of Animal by Tim Spooner, create your own creatures with collagraphy, a printing technique that uses a mix of materials with different textures to make unique and different shapes.

Sun 21 Jan

Session one: 10.30am – 12.30pm

Session two: 2pm – 4pm

Ages 4+

You can add a gift voucher to your booking to give your creative child something special to open on Christmas Day'
